

Sample Excerpt for Same-Sex Wedding

THE PRONOUNCEMENT

Having chosen each other in love and in freedom and have declared your purpose before this gathering and God and have made their vows to one another, by the authority vested in me by the State of California I now declare them spouses for life! Let all others honor them and the threshold of their house and may this moment begin years of love and joy. Congratulations!